UNITARIANS ARE NOT CAST DOWN

LETTER SWEET TEMPERED

"We make no controversy over this action, which puts, not us, but its promoters, at the bar of an enlightened public opinion. In view of it, however, it seems timely for us to affirm anew the sample truth proclaimed of old by Christ himself, that righteousness of life and spiritual efficiency, rather than orthodox, of belief, is the test of Christian discipleship. We affirm that the doing of the will of the Master in the vital thing, and that belief about the nature of Christ is unimportant in compacison

"We therefore appeal to all liberal Christians to put fresh courage and patter devotion in their own significant work. We certainly shall not try to build work. We certainly shall not try to build work with management which allow

Ready to Co-operate.

AMUSEMENTS

Ghastly wounds, hunger, thirst, pow der, trenches, dirt, rags, sickness, suffer-ing, death-is this war!

Not so, Witness "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and learn the facts. Here we have plump, well-fed, well-groomed and well-dressed soldiers. It they suffer, it is produced solely by low sickness induced by proximity to the charming southern ladies who, far from

Accept the Challenge.

"The Unitarian churches of America, and all who desire to promote pure Christianity in our land, should be glad to be confronted by a stimulating challenge. Whatsoever good things these other denominations propose to accomplish, and we deeply appreciate the good they do, it is manifest that, as represented by this action, they are both annulling and unable to commit themselves to the great Christian principles of freedom and brotherhood.

It is for us, therefore, to urge with new history and in the spirit of universal fellowship the ideals of faith and conduct that lie back of all the different to teach that under the inspiration and life of Carist men may here and now enter into his high discipleship in honest and unselfish service of the present age.

"Kate." otherwise Miss Gertrude Vaughn, are more than ample compensation for the limited suffering endured by W. P. Carleton as "Johnny." Asked from its amazing revelations concurring soldier life in the civil war and the novel costume effects, there isn't much that is radically new to comic opera in "When Johnny." Comes Marching Home." The piece swings along at a live when my hore and now enter the inspiration and life of Carleton and his carleton, head of the company presenting the piece, takes a good part in it himself as General Allen. His baritone easily leads the other male voices of the company—a fact appreciated by the management, which allows him to do most of the solo work. James Francis as "Jonathan Phoenix" improved the brief interval allotted to him to release some good character work, not disding to work in a few good dance steps he knows.

No less than fifteen songs, exclusive of "Suwanee River," "Star Spangled Banner," and others that have rendered long service, are worked in during the progress of the piece. No opportunity for a song is permitted to pass unnoticed or unimproved.

"When Johnny Comes Marching Home" went to a good house at the Salt Lake theatre last night. It, will be given tonight, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow unight.
